

Hello, January!

MIHEN Monthly Newsletter

This newsletter will help summarize a lot of the great new things the MIHEN has been working on just for you. As always, if you have any feedback, please email or call {517-393-6890}. Have a wonderful month.

New this month...

1. MIHEN Conference - Call for Proposals

- The theme for this year's MIHEN Conference is What About The Other Drugs: The Impact of Cannabis, Tobacco, and Other Substances on College Campuses. We are looking for presentations that encompass cannabis, tobacco, alcohol, and other drugs, and how it is closely linked to prevention, harm reduction, treatment strategies, PIHP partnerships, community coalitions, and mental health in higher education. If you or someone you know are interested, please fill out the form below. If you have any questions, please email me at alexw@preventionnetwork.org. Proposals are due January 15.

2. Fundamentals of Substance Misuse in Higher Education Training

- The MIHEN will host the Fundamentals of Substance Misuse in Higher Education training on February 13, 18, and 20 from 12:30 - 3:30 pm. This training is for professionals new to prevention in higher education. Since there is currently no certification or academic program in higher education prevention science, this three-day training will focus on the fundamentals of prevention science, college student behavior epidemiology, and using the Strategic Prevention Framework to apply evidence-based prevention strategies in higher education substance misuse prevention.

- This training will offer 9 MCBAP-specific CEUs.
- For more information and to register for the training, view here.

3. National Mentoring Month

- Every January, MENTOR advocates for supportive relationships for young people, mentoring as a legislative priority, and raising awareness around how mentorship can change a young person's life. You can get involved by exploring the resources below.

4. MIHEN Sub-Awards

- Prevention Network and the MIHEN are offering funding of up to $500 to 3 different colleges/universities/organizations to prevent substance misuse on college campuses. Organizations that wish to utilize these funds must work with their community college/university on prevention efforts. Requests will be considered until funds are exhausted. Please review the guidelines and breakdown attached below. To apply, please use this form. Funds will be dispersed on a first-come, first-serve basis. If you have any questions, please let me know!
