

Hello, June!

MIHEN Monthly Newsletter

This newsletter will help summarize a lot of the great new things the MIHEN has been working on just for you. As always, if you have any feedback please email or call {517-393-6890}. Have a wonderful month.

New this month...

1. MIHEN Conference

- The registration is now open for the MIHEN Conference! The conference is on June 17, 9am - 3pm via zoom. The cost for students and professionals is $20. The theme this year is Recovery and How It Relates To Trauma.
- The presentations will focus on trauma and how it relates to substance misuse and recovery on a college campus. We will also focus on ways to interact and be inclusive with LGBTQ+ students within recovery and what providers can do to improve care, ways to engage students virtually, in a hybrid format, and in person, specifically related to peer education, recovery programs on college campuses, and so much more!
- For more information and how to register, view the attached MIHEN Conference brochure. If you have any questions please email me. I hope to see you there! :)

2. Summer Series

- The SAFE Project is partnering with the Jamie Daniels Foundation to offer campuses in Michigan the opportunity to join an exclusive cohort of the SAFE Project Collegiate Recovery Summer Series. The Summer Series is an 8 week virtual program for university personnel who want to improve recovery support services and capacity on their campuses.
- For more information and to apply, please view the Collegiate Recovery Summer Series flyer. If you have any questions, let me know! This is a great opportunity for schools in Michigan who already have recovery support on their campuses, and for those who do not have recovery support but want to learn how to implement it on their campus!

3. Prevention Ethics Training

- Prevention Network is working with Eaton RESA to host an in person prevention ethics training on July 26 at Prevention Networks new office!
- The Ethics in Prevention training is developed under the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), Center for the Application of Prevention Technologies task order.
- This training is approved for 6.0 MCBAP hours, for a cost of $70.
- For more information and to register, please view the Prevention Ethics Training flyer. If you have any questions, please email me and I will get you connected with the right people. I hope to see you there!

4. Chances Are Workshop

- Bay County Prevention Network and Mid-State Health Network (MSHN) are putting on a workshop for the MIHEN that will provide an opportunity to increase the knowledge of personal and professional stigma, utilizing the 3D's in addressing in stigma and discuss substance use related language.
- The workshop will be held on July 6, 1pm-2pm via zoom. For more information and to register, please view the Chances Are Workshop flyer. If you have any questions let me know!

5. MIHEN Meeting Agenda

- The next MIHEN meeting is coming up this Wednesday at 11 am! Attached are the MIHEN Meeting Agenda. The Tobacco Control Program will presenting at this meeting as well! If anyone has any questions let me know.
